

Commas

Conjunctions!!!!!!

Yes!!!!!!!

Stop the excitement!!!!

IC +, + Conj. + IC

Coordinating Conjunctions

- To link independent clauses
- To list independent clauses
- To list dependent clauses or phrases
- Do not use a comma to connect an independent clause and dependent clause
 - except when avoiding confusion
 - and, or, for, but, nor, yet, so

Coordinating Conjunctions

- I like walking at night, I like singing in the shower, and I like glowing in the dark.
- I want to ski with Bill, walk with Joe, and eat with Christy.
- There are a variety of tasks that I want you to complete, and I know you will complete them all.
- Sara wants to go biking with you but is afraid to tell you.
- I like pizza and I like bunnies.

Activity

- Choose one of the pictures on the following slide.
- Write one sentence about the picture and show your understanding of the conjunction comma rule!

