

Unit 4: Argument Paper

Finding Your Cause: 250 Points

Format:

MLA Heading & Citations

Works Cited Page

Times New Roman

Double-Spaced

2 Pages

Task Question:

1. Your question should relate to a topic about which you are passionate or interested.
2. Your question should be open-ended.
3. Your question should incite stimulating conversation and yield multiple perspectives.

Should _____?

Directions:

Find three-four sources related to a topic of your choice, and closely read and annotate each of the texts. Then, generate a yes-or-no question, and write a source-based argument essay in which you articulate your stance regarding the question.

Be sure to:

1. Introduce and explain the topic.
2. Provide necessary background information.
3. Explain why your topic is important or a problem.
4. Examine steps mankind can take to solve the problem.
5. Address any potential opposing arguments.
6. Use information from and cite THREE-FOUR reliable sources.
7. Include a works cited page.

Late Policy = -15 points per day.

