Memory Response

Rita Hayworth and the Shawshank Redemption is essentially a re-telling of Red's memory of his experiences in Shawshank. He recalls Andy saying, "...memory is such a goddam subjective thing" (King 12).

For this response, you will:

1. Think about a time you remembered something that may not have happened, or remembered the details to a story incorrectly.
2. Write one paragraph describing what you remember.
3. Write another paragraph comparing what you remember to what actually happened (or what other people tell you what happened).

Your response should total a page and be written in double-spaced 12-point font.

This response is due Monday, April 29th.
